

BURLEIGH COUNTY, NORTH DAKOTA
CIVIL TOWNSHIPS

N
12/09/2024

Civil townships are local democratic governments established by law. They serve the public by overseeing roads, providing tax assessments, land use planning (zoning), and representation for township citizen's issues and concerns.

Burleigh County has 47 townships with 39 townships being formally organized and electing a Board Township Board of Supervisors. The Townships of Burnt Creek, Canfield, Florence Lake, Fort Rice, Lincoln, Lyman, Phoenix and Riverview are unorganized and governed by the Burleigh County Commission.

Most civil township boundaries in Burleigh County follow Public Land Survey System (PLSS) township and range lines except for Ecklund, Fort Rice, Glenview, Hay Creek, Lincoln and Painted Woods.

